LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. John H. Soper has our thanks for latest San Francisco papers.

Gleaners' Pink Fair at Fort-street Church parlor, seven this evening.

Prof. Yandley will give his singing class a vacation from date till the first week in January.

This evening the postponed monthly meeting of the Myrtle Club takes place at the boat house.

The search for Chun Hook, with $300 on his head, still continues, but so far no clue to his den has been reported.

Mr. Walter Hill, proprietor of the Bulletin, has our thanks for the loan of San Francisco papers and the Australia's report on Wednesday night.

Mr. Levey last night sold a goodly quantity of Christmas wares at auction, although the attendance was scarcely as full as that of Saturday night.

There was a fine attendance at the Honolulu Rifles' drill last evening, there being about 35 present, and the exercises were very satisfactory to Capt. Ashford.

All the Websters in Honolulu are thumb-marked at the "bi-monthly." The philologists as well as in philia between original Latin and Websterian definition.

The Hawaiian Government's indebtedness to Messrs. Claus Spreckels & Co., bankers, has been paid in full, as well as the debt of the Priory to the same house.

The following are registered at the Hawaiian Hotel: J. C. U. Winding, bark Forest Queen; Frank Halstead, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wilson, Miss F. M. Wilson, Miss Cora Stone, Cincinnati; M. H. Bedolle, S. S. Australia.

A case of alleged larceny of ducks, committed by Chinese on Chinese, occupied the Police Court all day yesterday. There was a formidable array of counsel on both sides. John wants the best advice when he goes to law, no matter what it costs.

The Thomson-Houston Electric Co., proprietors of the system of electric lighting in use at the Palace, placed 22,555 lights during September and October. They are 3,000 behind in their orders. There are 1,800 men employed at the works, Lynn, Massachusetts.

Mr. D. P. Smith, agent for the Thomson-Houston Electric Light Co., goes by the return steamer to Boston for electric light apparatus for Iolani Palace, which will be lighted by 300 sixteen-power incandescent lamps, the latest designs in electroliers or chandeliers to be used.

Some hitch at the last moment before the Australia sailed evidently deprived Honolulu of the circus. Stalls for the horses were built on the deck and other arrangements made, when, half an hour before the steamer's departure, stalls and everything were ordered cleared away.

Governor Lauka yesterday presented King Kalakaua, on behalf of General Dominis and staff, a diamond star and cross, made at Paris at the cost of $1,500. The King in turn conferred on Major Hayley, Intelligence officer, and Major Cornwall the Royal Order of Kalakaua.

The American bark Saranac arrived yesterday, 156 days from New York, with 300 tons of coal and the balance of the cargo oil and merchandise, to Messrs. Castle & Cooke. The captain reports fine weather to the Cape, where it was very rough, and fine weather the rest of the voyage. The bark is anchored out in the stream.

Arrived at San Francisco, Nov. 30th, bark Carbarien, 26 days hence; barkentine Discovery, 12 days, 12 hours hence; brigantine W. G. Irwin, 18 days, 12 hours hence; Dec. 2, brigantine Consuelo, 12 days, 12 hours. Sailed, for Honolulu, Dec. 5th, schooner W. S. Bowne; Nov. 25th, bark Eureka; Nov. 28th, barkentine Ella; brigantine Claus Spreckels.

Yesterday a gang of prisoners was employed filling in the cellar of the late Sailors' Home. The ground is to be graded for a public square, overlooked by the windows of the Post Office and of the Police Station on two sides. With a few trees round the border, and perhaps in time a fountain in the center, it will be a very pleasant breathing place.

The Best Tonic.

Mr. Henry Billings, Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used your Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky for medicinal purposes. As a tonic I consider it superior to the hundreds of concoctions which are now flooding the land as stimulant liquors."

A LOG BOOK.

Y. M. C. A. Journal Edited by Capt. Bray—Conversion of C. K. Miller.

A copy is to hand of the Association Log Book, published monthly by the Oakland Y. M. C. A., of which Capt. Bray, formerly of the missionary vessel Morning Star, is general secretary. The paper hitherto went under the name of the Bulletin, until it got a nautical editor. The column of items is headed "Log Book Entries." The following letter from a late resident of Honolulu is given without comment:

OAKLAND, CAL., Nov. 30, 1886.
CAPT. I. BRAY, Gen'l Sec'y Y. M. C. A., OAKLAND, CALA.

MY DEAR SIR:—I am so overjoyed from the effects of walking in the new path of life that I wish to make it known to all young men who are as lonely with Satan and as heavily laden in sin and vice as I was a short time ago.

The difference is more great than the contrast between sunshine and darkness.

Young men go on, tread the dark road, but while on your way, just drop Satan for a few minutes and call up into the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. and see the difference between the dark and dismal road of Satan and that of grandeur, splendor of sunshine of our dear Saviour.

You are all invited and cordially so. By allowing space in your December number of your BULLETIN for the above testimony, you will greatly oblige. Yours Truly, C. K. MILLER.

Y. M. C. A.

The monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening. The President, Mr. Bowen, in the chair. On the recommendation of the Board of Directors one voting and three associate members were enrolled. The treasurer, Mr. T. S. Southwick, reported $64.35, balance of cash on hand, with pledges and yearly dues well paid up, some of the pledges being paid in advance, to April next.

Mr. P. C. Jones, chairman of the temperance committee, reported the meetings in Fowler's yard to be well sustained, there having been an average attendance during the two months past, of nineteen adults, besides considerable number of juveniles, the latter of whom had proved themselves valuable assistants in the singing exercises.

The entertainment committee, Mr. W. A. Kinney, chairman, had finally decided on holding an entertainment on the evening of the 28th inst. to which all the members and their friends will be expected to contribute 50 cents each, admission free.

General Secretary Fuller read a letter from the Rev. Mr. Peck, New Haven Conn., introducing and recommending to the favorable reception of the member of the Association Dr. C. A. Dorman, a local preacher of the Methodist connection. The subject matter of the letter was referred to the Devotional Committee, with power to act in the premises as they deem advisable.

A proposal to hold a watch night service, on New Year's Eve, was referred to the committee on devotion. The reading room committee reported the number of visitors to be about as stated in former reports.

Mr. F. J. Lowrey, for the devotional committee, reported on the several meetings held under the auspices of the association, and that it is intended to hold a noon-day meeting of half an hour, commencing at 12:25, every Saturday, at the rooms.

The collection taken amounted to $10.50.

Yesterday a native was driving a four-in-hand team of oxen, hitched to a big box drag in which several school girls were riding, up Palama road. The beasts were hard to guide and in one of their zigzag diversions brought the fore wheel of the wagon heavily against a telephone post. It was great fun for the girls, who screamed and laughed in glee as they hurriedly jumped to the ground. After some gee-hawing and backing the equipage got into the road again, stopping for the girls to remount and then pursuing its tortuous and labored course.

The Los Angeles Herald says: San Pedro is taking steps for its aggrandisement. A petition for incorporation will be presented to the Board of Supervisors within the month, and a bonded warehouse is also to be established. It will be run by Sherwood & Sherwood of San Francisco in the Phillips block—the only big business block in the big seaport of Los Angeles County.

A hackman had a pig for a fare yesterday, a black pig at that, and let it fall out of his carriage on Merchant street. The genealogical detective stalked on the ground over this bad treatment, until its hogship was tenderly lifted into the carriage again.

The United Irishmen and Fenian Brotherhood have bounced O'Donovan Rossa, for "falsehood, treachery, insubordination and many other crimes against the orders."

The S. S. Zealandia was 7 days 16 hours on her last trip to San Francisco. Her 2,000 bunches of bananas were mostly in bad order and unfit for use.

"As a true tonic, effective invigorator and genuine appetizer, Duffy's Malt Whisky is unexcelled."

FOREIGN NEWS.

George and the Church.

Henry George, the late labor candidate for Mayor of New York, has addressed an open letter to Archbishop Corrigan of the Catholic Diocese of New York in reference to the recent pastoral letter by the latter, in which he took occasion to warn his people against the land theories of George. Nearly all of the letter in reply is devoted to controversial discussion of George's well-known theories on the question of the private ownership of land. Aside from the significant part, the letter is as follows: "That part of your pastoral to which I refer has been taken by the press as placing the Catholic Church in the attitude of the champion of private property in land and is certainly calculated to create the impression that the doctrine that all men have equal and inalienable rights to use natural element is opposed to and condemned by the Catholic faith. Since I am not a Catholic it might seem hardly befitting in me to deny your right as an Archbishop to clothe your political and economic opinions in the garb of official religious teaching; but I may, perhaps, be permitted to call your attention to the fact that such right has been expressly denied by high Catholic authority, and to the further fact that the very opinions which you officially stigmatize as opposed to Catholic teachings are openly avowed, not only by Catholic laymen and priests, but by prelates of official dignity not inferior to your own. Perhaps, also, I may be permitted to observe that the quotation you make from the encyclical of Pope Leo XIII. in no wise bears out the interpretation you put upon it. Instead of condemning as dangerous the theory that human rights to the use of land are equal, it, on the contrary, condemns those who assail the rights of property which are sanctioned by natural law, and this restriction which excludes land is still further enforced by the Pope's characterization of property of which he speaks, a characterization that clearly applies only to that species of property which is the result of human exertion."

A Tariff Fight.

A Washington special to the San Francisco Call says: The Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee say they are bound to have a tariff fight. The position taken by the President on that question had given them new courage. They insist that tariff for revenue only must be the party cry. A straight issue must be made, and all who cannot stand under that banner cannot march in their lines. They were never more determined. The Committee on Public Lands expect to get some of their measures through. The Committee on Agriculture will try to pass the department of agriculture and labor bill, and expect to succeed. It is already a special order, with but forty minutes' debate pending on it, and that at the disposal of the chairman of the committee, Mr. Hatch.

Constitutional Centennial Celebration.

The board of promotion of the constitutional centennial celebration in 1889 of the world's exposition in honor of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America and the permanent exposition of the three Americas, an outgrowth of the world's exposition, proposed to be held in the city of Washington, met in convention in the capital on Dec. 7th. Delegates were present from many large cities. The West was well represented.

A Teacher Kills a Man.

At Henderson, Mich., Dec. 8th, Fred Joslyn, a school teacher, shot and killed Thomas Morrison. The teacher had punished young Morrison, as his father thought, too severely, and Morrison visited the school to investigate. He entered the schoolroom, and walking up to Joslyn, told him he was going to give him the same treatment, whereupon Joslyn drew his revolver and shot Morrison dead.

Stock cattle are worth about $20 per head in Owens Valley.

Sales of real estate at Ontario during November amounted to $45,000.

Helena, M. T., is to have a water-works system that will cost $500,000.

The farmers throughout the interior are generally complaining of the lack of rain.

Squirrels on the Contra Costa shore have become so numerous that farmers have resolved to wage war against them.

In 1851 the site on which now stands the town of Alameda was sold for $14,000. The assessment this year is $6,500,000.

It is reported that a fine gold gravel bed has been discovered on the banks of the West Walker River, above Antelope Valley, Nevada.

Stockmen of Humboldt County generally state that the condition of cattle and sheep, so far this season, is all that could be desired or expected.

A carload of hops, 25,000 pounds, was received Friday in Salt Lake direct from Germany, by a local brewery, to be used in the making of German beer.

The Odd Fellows of San Jose are agitating the question of having all the Odd Fellows lodges rendezvous in that city on the occasion of the next anniversary and indulge in a fraternal reunion.

It is reported that a great many tons of the second crop of Zinfandel grapes went to waste in the vicinity of Cloverdale and Geyserville this season. The Mission grapes are pretty well harvested.

The following is a list of vessels repaired at the Mare Island yard and the amount expended on them during the past year: Adams, $30,350.07; Hartford, $12,074.35; Independence, $1,775.82; Ranger, $9,761.30.

The Tombstone of the town of the same name in Arizona says: Quite a band of Papago Indians are visiting this city for the purpose of selling horses. They are as cute as a Yankee at making a trade or driving a bargain.

Jas. G. Blaine, Jr., is working as a reporter on the Pittsburg, Pa., Times.

Mrs. Ann Peck, aged 90, was lost in a burning building at Baltimore.

The Union Pacific trains are to be run on twenty-four hour o'clock time.

The Seminole Indians in the Everglades, Florida, are putting on war paint on account of bad treatment from a camp of white men.

Prosecutions against Mormons in Utah are being vigorously pushed. It is reported that all "Zion" would be glad to escape to Mexico.

Pittsburg had an oil panic on the 7th, but only one failure occurred, that of F. M. Hayes, a leading broker.

A man captured in the City of Mexico, for selling $30,000 worth of bogus tickets for Patti concerts, is supposed to be one Charles Bourton, an alleged Parisian journalist who lived in New York a few weeks last fall.

There was a hung jury in the trial of the two Milwaukee men charged with riot and conspiracy.

John T. Lester, of Chicago, under a compromise with the Treasury Department, has to pay duties and costs of $1,600 and a penalty of $8,000, for undervaluation of a lot of valuable paintings from Paris.

S. S. Cox ("Sunset") has returned to the Federal House, being elected in place of Joseph Pulitzer, resigned. During his absence from Congress he was American Minister to Turkey.

A severe storm visited the Atlantic Coast on the 7th, causing much disaster to shipping, and being accompanied by snow impeded railway travel in New York and New Jersey. On Cape Cod the wind attained a velocity of fifty miles an hour. The signal service gave no warning of the storm, which seemed to approach from the ocean and a Boston despatch says was in some respects the most remarkable ever known on that coast.

Volney R. Chamberlain, one of the largest pork packers in the East, was arraigned in the Cambridge, Mass., Superior Court, Dec. 6th, charged with having concealed the assets of the insolvent firm of Lincoln, Chamberlain & Co., pork packers, of which he was a partner, and with the crime of perjury in having sworn falsely to certain purchases of Government bonds.

EUROPE.

The Situation in Ireland.

A London special says: Two features of the Irish situation are the sudden energy with which the National League plan of the campaign is developing, and the alarm which Dillon and O'Brien's proceedings cause among the English Liberals. O'Brien's excursion to Cork was signalized by a remarkable speech and an open declaration of the method by which he means to bring the landlords to terms. The most ingenious part is, perhaps, that by which all costs incurred by tenants in resisting evictions are to be paid out of the rents in the hands of the trustees. Dillon goes still further and threatens vengeance, whenever the Parnellites come into power, on those bailiffs, judges and police who now execute the law. This is what so startled the English Liberals. The Daily News appeals to Dillon to withdraw his threats and urges the Nationalist party to repudiate them. "If he does not, the English democracy," says this journal, "will never subscribe to a policy of revenge." Archbishop Walsh's complaint about jury packing has been speedily followed by what the Pall Mall Gazette considers a vindication of Castle authorities. Protestants and Catholics qualified to act as jurors are nearly equal, and their numbers on the panel are also nearly equal.

British Federation.

Right Hon. Edward Stanhope, president of the Board of Trade, has sent to the various colonial governments copies of a circular inviting them to send representatives to the conference which will be held in London in April or May for the purpose of having a full discussion of all matters tending to bring about a closer union of the colonies and the mother country. The special objects of the conference are the discussion of the question of organizing a system of defense and of simplifying the postal-telegraph system. Mr. Stanhope says in his circular that he foresees that the question of federation may be broached, but he would deprecate the discussion of this most important subject before all the colonies have agreed upon a basis of action.

A CARD.

The undersigned herewith publicly warns H. Hart, of the Elite Ice Cream Parlor, to desist from further slanderous talk and annoyances against myself or my business; or the making use of my name in any shape or form, as I have nothing in common with said Hart; otherwise I shall take proceedings against him according to law, in order to protect my reputation and the good will of my business.

F. HORN,
Practical Confectioner, Pastry Cook and Ornamentor, Hotel street,
Honolulu, Dec. 13th, 1886.

HONOLULU, Dec. 12th, 1886.

To the Editor of the HERALD:

DEAR SIR—The beautiful cake, with other delicacies, that Mr. Horn so generously donated to the Priory fair last Saturday week, was sold for the sum of $12, being subscribed for by twelve citizens at a dollar each, who each took their share away with them. It was not cut up by Hart of the Elite Ice Cream Parlor and distributed to the Reformatory school boys, as is said to have been stated by the said Hart.

A prominent Judge's lady undertook the disposal of the cake and two gentlemen (who were subscribers) cut it up and handed it, under the lady's direction, to the remaining contributors.

Every one was well satisfied with Mr. Horn's skill and handwork, and the cake was all that could be wished for, and well worth the money subscribed for it.

I am yours, etc.

SUBSCRIBER TO THE CAKE.

KAPALAMA, Dec. 12th, 1886.

DEAR MR. HORN—In reply to your query with regard to the handsome cake donated by you to the Priory fair yesterday week, I have to state that I was one of the gentlemen (Mr. F. L. Clarke being the other), who assisted in cutting up and distributing the same to the twelve subscribers, of whom I was one.

The cake was certainly not given to my Reformatory School Band boys, and whoever says so is guilty of an untruth.

H. R. H. Princess Likeliest very kindly undertook to see that the boys were amply provided with refreshments, and they had all they wished for.

The cake was not only a very handsome one as a work of art, but was exceedingly tasty and delicious.

You are at liberty to make use of this in any way you may think fit.

I am, dear sir, yours, etc.,
GEORGE E. GRESLEY JACKSON,
Principal Reformatory School.

A CARD.

The undersigned has not been in the habit of foolishly or falsely puffing his goods, having been quite content to rest upon the approbation of his patrons. The large and increasing patronage of the Elite Ice Cream Parlors, together with the growing demand for ice cream and the wholesome and elegant cakes made on the place, has been a satisfactory and sufficient answer to all slurs.

The card in the HERALD of the 13th inst., wherein I am charged by a certain Mr. Horn with making false statements regarding some cake of his manufacture, may, however, require some answer, and I hereby desire to state to said Horn and to the public, that I have made no assertion or statement regarding his goods, nor is it my intention or desire so to do. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," and the evidence regarding the respective qualities of the products of the Elite Ice Cream Parlors and of the said Horn, to the date hereof, has been quite satisfactory to me, and no doubt to an intelligent and discriminating public.
